

Feels Like Velvet Wears Like Iron

is not an ordinary boot. It is a new "BALL BAND" Boot perfected and produced after five years of experiment. It is made of high-grade material by men who know how -- and vulcanized by vacuum process, which makes this boot positively the best ever offered the public by anyone. There is no exception.

These goods are adapted particularly to hard wear. By actual test they have shown their superiority over all other rubber footwear worn in Mines, Fisheries, Creameries, Construction Work and wherever a boot is subjected to unusual wear. We welcome tests with any other boot in the world. We know that the comparison will be favorable to the "Vac" "BALL-BAND" Boot.

PLAYERS RECEIVE WORLD SERIES MONEY

Each New Yorker Gets $2160, While Victorious Athletics Take $3244 Each—Fletcher Fined $100.

The members of the New York National league club received their share of the world series receipts yesterday—amounting to $54,955.67. Divided among the 25 players who were eligible to take part in the series, each man received a little more than $22160, with the exception of Arthur Fletcher, who was handed $100 less, the amount he was fined for arguing with Empire Comptroller during one of the games. Matthewson and Merkle, the committee who applied for the players' money, presented a statement satisfactory to the national commission regarding the literary efforts of some of the men. They reported that each player-author who wrote of the series signed his newspaper contract before the national commission's edict of Sept. 27 placing the ban on writing. The commission had threatened to fine any player who made a contract after that date and had been withholding the money until proof was furnished that their edict had not been disobeyed.

Today the national commission will hand the world's champions their share of receipts in Philadelphia. Twenty-five Athletics will receive each about $3244, totaling nearly $81,100.

HAP MYERS IS MAD.

Says Stallings Treated Him Shabbily—Refuses To Go To Rochester.

Hap Myers, released the other day by the Boston Nationals to Rochester, declares that he has been shabbily treated by George Stallings. Myers believes with much reason that he was let out by Stallings because he had been active in the affairs of the Ball Players' Fraternity.

"I will not report to Rochester next spring," said Myers. "I will remain on the coast and quit the game. I played good ball this year and was led to believe right up to the last moment that I would be kept. Now I've been canned to Rochester and there is no chance to get back into the big show until drafting time comes around next September. Me for the Golden Gate!"

D. 1913, at three o'clock in the afternoon, unless said property is sooner redeemed by payment of the amount of said execution, together with all legal fees and costs thereon, the following personal property, to wit: One brown horse, one express wagon with yellow running gear and red body, one end spring buggy painted black, one single wheel harness complete with collar, and one complete driving harness.

WOLGAST VICTOR IN 10-ROUND BOUT

Had Better of Battling Nelson in Eight Rounds, While Two Were Even—Dane Groggy Three Times.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 14.—Ad Wolgast of Cadillac, Mich., defeated Battling Nelson of Hegewich, Ill., in a 10-round no decision boxing contest here last night.

Wolgast had the better of eight of the ten rounds, while two were even. The contest was the hardest and fastest ever seen here, both men appearing anxious to put the other out.

Wolgast fought a clean, swift battle and three times had the Dane groggy. He used his left to the chin and right to the face with great force, but the Battler always came back hard. Nelson bored in continually and at times showed flashes of his old-time form, but his blows lacked force.

Both tired toward the end of the contest, owing to their continual boring in tactics, but Wolgast was far the fresher at the close. Blood was flowing from the Dane's nose, ear and lips from the hard and sharp blows of the Cadillac boxer.

It was Wolgast's fight after the first round. He drew his first blood with a blow to Nelson's mouth and as the round was ending and except for the eighth round had much the better of his opponent.

BOGGIE TAKES COLD AND MAY NOT RACE

Stayed in Tent at Ware Fair—Cared for in Greenfield—Larrow's Magneto Withdrawn for Season.

Boggie, K. E. Mosher's race horse, may not be able to start in the races at Fitchburg Friday and Saturday, owing to a hard cold contracted at the Ware fair. No accommodation was obtainable in a barn there and the horse took cold in a tent. Boggie is now at Greenfield in the care of his trainer and driver, Robert Bourke.

Magneto, the race horse owned by Frank A. Larrow of Brattleboro, has been withdrawn from the track for the season and has been taken to Ticonderoga for the winter.

Sporting Notes.

The demand for tickets for the late games at the Harvard stadium exceeds all records.

Walter Johnson is reported to have turned down a vaudeville offer that would have netted him $1500 a week for 10 weeks.

Eddie Plank says that he said a year ago that this season would be his last in baseball, but he has changed his mind about retiring.

The football experts all agree that the Williams team put up a better game against the Crimson than is indicated by the score of 23 to 3.

The United States is represented this year in the International balloon race from Paris by only two teams instead of the three allowed by the rules of the contest.

George Whitman, a young outfielder secured by Chance of the Yankees late in the season from a Texas team, has been released to Montreal of the International league.

One wonderful feature of the late world's series is the fact that Conitt Mack not once had to yank a pitcher or send in a pinch hitter. That means a good deal when you come to think it over.

Fullback Snow of Dartmouth, who was injured in the Vermont game Saturday, may not be able to start against Princeton a week from Saturday. Dartmouth regards the Williams game this week as one that means a stiff struggle for victory.

The Boston National Baseball club has acquired property adjoining the old grounds and a new steel and concrete grandstand is contemplated by President Gaffney. It is possible that by moving the diamond a few feet a longer left foul line may be obtained and a much longer right foul line.

The oil king is credited with an earning capacity of $1039 a minute sleeping or waking. The Athletics in the world's series made $51.74 a minute or about $6 cents a second, while the defeated Giants made $34.49 a minute, or a trifle more than 55 cents a second.

The St. Louis post-season series resulted in a brawl between players, the umpires quitting and then returning to their work and finally in a victory in the first game for the Nationals by a score of 5 to 2 and a tie in the second game of five innings, each team scoring one run.

Proctor, Keene's shortstop, and Volk, Newport's first sacker during the Twin State season, are having a fight for a backfield position on the Tufts varsity football team this season. Volk has played before, but is said not to be in condition, while Proctor never played before, but seems to take naturally to the game.

Not far short from a million and a quarter of dollars was the cost of the recent world's baseball series to the American public. While this amount may be taken as a fair estimate of money directly expended, there are many items that might be added to the expense list which are indirectly traceable to the craze for baseball.

Gregg of Cleveland and Hendrix of Pittsburgh had a remarkable battle for 13 innings in the sixth post-season game between the teams, Gregg finally winning out by a score of 1 to 0. He doubled in that inning and scored on a single by Leibold. He allowed only five singles, to six singles and two doubles by Hendrix.

The Chicago White Sox defeated the Cubs of the National league in the deciding game of the Chicago city series by a score of 5 to 2. Scott out-pitched Humphries and the timely batting of Fournier drove in the winning runs. This game closed the seventh series between the clubs representing the city, four of which have been won by the American leaguers, two by the Nationals and the first of which was a tie.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

HAS NO SEX PROBLEM.

And Yet Peg O' My Heart is a Successful Play.

A play which does not depend upon the seriousness of any one theme, with no mention of any great political question, no "crooks" and without the inevitable triangle or any of the deeper problems of sex, and still one of the season's biggest hits, is Peg O' My Heart, which comes to the Auditorium Friday, Oct. 24.

In this comedy J. Hartley Manners has written a story of a young girl, the daughter of an aristocratic English mother and an unsuccessful Irish Socialist. Her mother has died at her birth and her father has secured her. Peg's mother, who never has forgiven his sister for marrying against his wishes, relents and makes Peg his heiress, allowing an income of a thousand pounds a year to any respectable family which will undertake her education. The Chichesters, who had expected to inherit this fortune, never the charge, as they are in need of money to keep up appearances. They are a proud, affected, surface-living family and Peg is made very unhappy. They are blind to her goodness of character and do not give the affection her nature craves. She strikes up a friendship with an Englishman, while he is a nobleman, she knows simply as Jerry. Peg saves the daughter of the family from an elopement with a married man and after an outbreak in which her Irish temper has full sway, she is about to leave their house, when she learns that Sir Gerald or Jerry is her legal guardian and anyone to be her husband as well, and so she stays.

Blanche Hall has the title role of Peg, with Lionel Glenister, Vivian Gilbert, T. Jerome Lawler, Ruth Gartland, Alma Chester and Gabrielle Gelinas, in other parts.

GAVE FINE CONCERT.

Springfield Republican Praises Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir.

The Royal Welsh Ladies' choir gave an unusually pleasing concert in Springfield, Mass., last night. There was an uncommon ease and clarity of tone in the solo work and the chorus numbers were rendered with exceptional brilliance, according to the Springfield Republican. The program opened with Handel and included Welsh folk songs, Miscere from Verdi's Il Trovatore, an American melody, Killarney, Comrades in Arms, and other numbers equally pleasing.

The concert this evening promises to be a rate treat. Wherever the choir has sung it has given entire satisfaction. Mella said of it: "The Welsh choir is magnificent; they are perfectly splendid, and you may say I said so."
